

SANCTUARY TRIO

Bass clarinet, cello & organ

CD Reviews of The heart has its reasons:

"A completely addictive, achingly melancholy suite of compositions..... this is perfect chill-out music whose subtle atmospherics and unashamed quest for beauty make it far more compelling than such a description normally implies"

—The Independent on Sunday, UK

"Truly gorgeous. Rated A."

—Stuart Derdeyn, the Vancouver Province

Concert Reviews:

"The sounds created by the virtuosi [in Sanctuary] at times seemed to arise from nature itself as if from exotic birds, but then again as if resounding from some mystical echoes"

—Diena, Latvia

"Sanctuary: a journey into a land of discoveries, an admirably refined sound this concert was a completely satisfying experience."

—Frankfurter Rundschau, Germany

"Sanctuary's music soothes the soul"

—The Halifax Daily News

"From barely there cello to "phantomisque" organ blasts.... Sanctuary re-defines the concert setting into a contemplative happening."

—The Coast, Halifax

Peter Togni (organ)

"Togni's music is deeply felt, simply put well-crafted and irradiated by a personal sense of the divine."

—The Chronicle Herald, Halifax

Jeff Reilly (bass clarinet)

"Jeff Reilly is an undisputed master of the Bass Clarinet who has gone to the end to explore its sonic universe."

—The Chronicle Herald, Halifax

Christoph Both (cello)

"...stunningly rich in tone, a dance of fire on the fingerboard..."

—The Chronicle Herald, Halifax
