

Swingle Singers: A Capella Programs

Ferris Wheels

This programme, tying in with the Swingle Singers released in 2009, focuses on the vast repertoire by some of the world's greatest singer-songwriters. From Joni Mitchell to Björk, Brian Wilson to the Beatles, this collection includes new arrangements written by current members of the Swingle Singers, and also includes classical Swingle favourites by Chopin and Satie.

Includes:

Joni Mitchell: Both Sides Now

Sting/Chopin: Until

Chopin: Prelude in E Minor Op.28 No.4

Gershwin: Fascinatin' Rhythm

Lennon/McCartney: Blackbird/I Will

Lennon/McCartney: Eleanor Rigby

Wilson/Asher: God Only Knows

Nick Drake: River Man

Björk: Unravel

Lambert, Hendricks & Lewis: It's Sand, Man!

Classic Reinventions

For the purist Swingle Singers fans, this programme brings together the wide-ranging classical pieces in the group's repertoire, from Baroque (J.S. Bach) to Classical (Mozart), and modern (Eric Whitacre), reminding fans again why the group is still unbeaten at performing these timeless pieces.

Includes:

J.S. Bach: Fugue in D Minor

J.S. Bach: Badinerie

Mozart: Overture to "Magic Flute"

Debussy: Clair de Lune

Eric Whitacre: A Boy and a Girl

The Jazz Show

The Swingle Singers' dedicated jazz programme showcases some of the group's traditional Big Band and swung Bach favourites (for fans of the original 60's Swingles), as well as contemporary original jazz works for fans of a younger generation.

Includes:

Gershwin: Fascinatin' Rhythm

Mintzer: Beyond The Limit

Lambert/Hendricks/Mills: It's Sand, Man!

Harry Connick, Jr.: If I Could Give You More

The Peacocks: A Timeless Place
